—All indications point to a local option election in Struthers at an early date, says a correspondent. The dry workers of the village insist that they are not afraid of the outcome either. They declare that the effects of a saloonless town have been too well demonstrated in their village to be lightly cast aside by even the most alluring arguments that proponents of the rum shops may be able to advance.

—The average life of a grain binder is only about 100 days or 20 days for each of five years. The life of a binder will be lengthened if good care is given it. A few days before grain harvesting begins the binder should be overhauled and put in as good condition as possible. See that the guards are tight and in line, that badly nicked or broken sections and ledger plates are replaced by new ones, that the clips are so adjusted that the sickle is held firmly and makes a true shearing cut, that the knife of the binder attachment is sharp, and that all parts are well oiled.

—An Alliance girl, writing from Sacramento, Cal., says of a son of Charles Swanson, formerly of Canfield and Berlin township: My first stop after leaving San Francisco was in Sacramento at the beautiful home of George Swanson and family. I had the experience of seeing a splendid, modern slaughter house and having explained the mysteries of its use from the spearing of the animal to the final act of disposing of even the last drop of blood. Mr. Swanson is a widely known and very successful wholesale butcher and packer and this fine equipment is on his 2500 acre ranch about seven miles from the city.

—Commencing July 9 and continuing for three days there will be conducted in Kinsman the 1915 Retreat of the young people of the Mahoning Presbytery. It will be the scene of the annual popular gathering of the young people from every Presbyterian church in the county, and during the three days there will be popular lectures, round table discussions and a young people's social retreat in the woods of Kinsman. Among the speakers who will be present are: Dr. A. P. Kelso, Mr. Pleasant, Jr. He is a young man who a few years ago won the Rhodes-scholarship in Pennsylvania and subsequently spent three years in Oxford, England; Dr. W. H. Hudnut of Youngstown, will deliver an illustrated lecture on John the martyr; and Hon. Warren Thomas of Warren, who will be the speaker of the temperance and prohibition rally. Rev. P. P. Reinhold of Warren will address the meeting Saturday afternoon, his subject being "The Quiet Hour."

—The Ravenna Republican says: P. B. Tomson, dean of Portage county pedagogues, has been engaged to teach in district No. 4, northwest Shalersville, for the coming year. Mr. Thompson taught school in this same district forty-five years ago in the winter of 1869-70, it being then known as the Buell district. Four of his former pupils are still living within its territory: Mrs. Joseph Libis, Lee Wright, Jay Wright and Mrs. Flora Kimes, and he will board at the home of the last named pupil of olden days. It was in this same district that the veteran teacher used to rock baby Arthur C. Colt to sleep on the long winter evenings when in the course of his "boarding around" it was his week at the Colt home. "Baby Colt" is now widely known as the founder and manager of the Colt Lyceum Bureau of Cleveland. Mr. Thompson commenced his life work of teaching almost fifty years ago and with the exception of four years during which he engaged in other occupations, he has taught continuously during that long period. He says he expects to die in the harness and hopes to add many more terms to his record, a hope in which hundreds of Portage county friends heartily join.

Somewhere Around.

"I never see her with her husband. Has she lost him?"

"I don't know. Some people seem to think she has merely misplaced him."—Pittsburgh Post.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in dose from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
